To the Board of Trustees of Agnes Scott College:

PRESENT HEREWITH my thirteenth annual report as president of the college as our eventful seventy-fifth anniversary year draws to a close.

We are deeply gratified that the past year brought a successful conclusion to our long-range capital funds effort that began on July 1, 1953. This Seventy-fifth Anniversary Development Program had as its objective the addition of $10,500,000 to Agnes Scott's capital assets. In the period from July 1, 1953, to June 30, 1964, we have increased our capital assets from $7,034,903.96 to $19,191,629.68, the increase totaling $12,156,725.72 or 172.8%. In addition, campaign pledges of $610,753.44 were in hand as of June 30, 1964. This means that with an eleven-year objective of $10,500,000, we have secured a total of $12,767,479.16 in cash and pledges for capital purposes. Of this amount, 28% is earmarked for physical plant and 72% for endowment.

More than six thousand alumnae, students, parents, friends, foundations, and business interests participated in our capital funds effort. Two campus campaigns for students, faculty, staff, and other college employees (one launching the intensive phase of the enterprise in 1960, and the other concluding the fund raising plans in 1964) were outstanding events, realizing approximately $200,000 and creating enthusiasm and incentive for solicitation among alumnae and friends. Forty-five area campaigns throughout the nation were led by alumnae. Hundreds of calls upon friends of the college, business firms, and foundations were made by trustees, volunteers in Decatur, Atlanta, and other communities, and by members of the college staff. Toward the close of the intensive campaign, the whole effort was stimulated and substantially aided by challenge grants from four foundations and by the opportunity to match a trust fund dollar-for-dollar.

The success of our Seventy-fifth Anniversary Development

Program has strengthened the college in a number of areas, enabling us more adequately to undertake our academic responsibility, undergirding and enriching many aspects of life on our campus. The following data indicate some of the significant gains during the eleven-year period of our development enterprise (July 1, 1953-June 30, 1964):

	1953	1964	Increase

The seventy-fifth anniversary of the college was observed by a memorable series of events during the period beginning with Founder's Day, February 22, 1964, and concluding with Commencement. The prevailing motif throughout the observance was a forward look, with emphasis upon understanding the issues and challenges that lie ahead and the desire to point the college forward to its task in the next quarter of a century.

The special events of Agnes Scott's Seventy-fifth Anniversary Observance were as follows:

THANKSGIVING CONVOCATION, Saturday, February 22, at 12 noon. Participating in this service were three men who represent the entire history of the college: Mr. Alex P. Gaines, Agnes Scott trustee and grandson of Dr. Frank H. Gaines, first president of Agnes Scott; President Emeritus James Ross McCain; and President Wallace M. Alston. The program included an academic procession, the reading of Psalm 103, a brief address by Dr. McCain, and a prayer rededicating the college to the glory of God and to the Christian growth of young people.

LECTURE, Wednesday, February 26, by Viktor E. Frankl, head of the neurological department at the Polyklinik Hospital at the University of Vienna. Dr. Frankl spoke on "Man in Search for Meaning." This distinguished Austrian psychiatrist is noted for his development of the theory of logotherapy.

BUDAPEST STRING QUARTET, Friday, March 6. Works by Mozart, Bartok, and Beethoven were included in a program presented by this world-renowned musical group composed of Joseph Roisman, Boris Kroyt, Alexander Schneider, and Mischa Schneider.

LECTURE, Wednesday, April 1, by Margaret Mead, associate curator of ethnology at the American Museum of Natural History and adjunct professor of anthropology at Columbia University. Dr. Mead's subject was "Looking a Generation Ahead."

LECTURE, Thursday, April 16, by Charles P. Taft, distinguished son of the twenty-seventh President of the United States, and a leading tax and trial lawyer, churchman, and statesman. Mr. Taft's lecture had as its topic, "The European Common Market: Threat or Opportunity?"

APPRECIATION DINNER, Friday, April 24, given by the trustees of the college, honoring area leaders in the forty-five area campaigns throughout the nation. Citations were presented to these women whose efforts contributed determinatively to the success of the capital funds campaign.

LECTURE, Friday, April 24, by Alice Jernigan Dowling, 1930 graduate of Agnes Scott, who has served with her husband, Walter C. Dowling, in diplomatic posts in Oslo, Lisbon, Rome, Rio, Vienna, Seoul, and Bonn. Mrs. Dowling was the featured speaker of Alumnae Week End, using the topic, "Women of Conscience in a Changing World."

LECTURE, Tuesday, May 5, by Mark Van Doren, lecturer, writer, and teacher. Dr. Van Doren, whose Collected Poems won for him a Pulitzer Prize in 1940, read his poems in one of the most delightful lectures of the entire anniversary series.

LECTURE, Monday, May 18, by Sir Charles P. Snow, British scientist and novelist. Sir Charles and Lady Snow (Pamela Hansford Johnson) were on the campus May 16-20, meeting with classes and with groups of students and faculty members.

COMMENCEMENT, Sunday and Monday, June 7, 8. Dr. George M. Docherty, minister of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church, Washington, D.C., preached the baccalaureate sermon. The seventy-fifth commencement speaker on Monday morning, June 8, was LeRoy Collins, Governor of Florida from 1955 to 1960, and more recently president of the National Association of Broadcasters, Washington, D.C.

Agnes Scott College was literally conceived in prayer and dedication when George Washington Scott and his young minister, the Rev. Frank Henry Gaines, determined (in Colonel Scott's own words) "to make it as great an institution of this kind as there is in the land." So far as I am concerned, the most significant single experience of our period of observance of seventy-five years in Agnes Scott's life was the moment when a large audience, consisting of present students, faculty and staff members, trustees, alumnae, and friends stood reverently for the purpose of deliberately rededicating the college to God for service as He may direct. The prayer of rededication, offered by the president of the college, was as follows:

Almighty God, our Father, Source of our life, Inspiration of our labors, and Goal of all our hopes and purposes—

We rejoice in the knowledge that in Thee we live, and move, and have our being; that Thou hast created us for Thyself, so that our hearts are restless until they find rest in Thee; and that in Thy light we may see life clearly, and in Thy service find our freedom and Thy purpose for us.

We offer up to Thee in this moment something that Thou has loved and hast committed to us in sacred stewardship—a vine of Thine own planting, tended and nourished by Thy providential care since the day of small beginnings.

We humbly and deliberately rededicate this college to Thy glory and to the service of mankind in the name and spirit of Jesus Christ. We gladly renew the vows of commitment to truth, sol- emly assumed by those who have gone before us in the work of this institution. Grant to us, we pray, a full measure of devotion to excellence in scholarship, to integrity of life both in and out of the classroom, and to freedom of the mind and spirit in every aspect of our experience as a college. Grant to us the courage to be and to do what Thou dost expect of us. Forbid that we shall ever be afraid of that which is high, or distinctive, or difficult. Keep us from false pride in past achievements and from self-satisfaction and complacency in present responsibilities. Grant that we may continue to be dissatisfied with everything that is tawdry or shoddy, with premature arrangements and compromises that reduce tensions but that result in mediocrity.

Help us to live a contemporary life, willing to face new issues and to discover new truth, holding fast that which is good out of the past, and faithfully conserving and interpreting to young people timeless truth and values. Grant that we may place our obligation to Thee above every other allegiance, no matter whether this appears to be popular or unpopular. May it please Thee, Our Father, to sustain and strengthen our intellectual and spiritual life so that our witness to the truth may be clear and strong.

Accept our gratitude for every mercy of the past and present. Accept all that we have and all that we are, and consecrate our offering of this college to Thee that it may be acceptable as a torch of light and a means of blessing and hope in Thy Hands for all the tomorrows.

Through Jesus Christ our Lord—Amen.

Buildings and Grounds

CAMPUS AND PLANT improvements undertaken in the summer of 1963 and during the session just closed were as follows:

Major repairs were completed at the power plant. The boilers were repaired and new tubes installed to replace defective ones as needed. A new stoker was installed in one of the boilers and twin gas burners in the other boiler. In addition, pumps, motors, valves, and piping were replaced where needed so as to insure adequate service for the present session.

A new electrical distribution center was provided to give relief to our overloaded electrical service. Four underground vaults were built and were connected to new services in order to distribute our electrical load evenly over the campus.

Inman lobby was decorated and refurbished.

Murphey Candler Student Activities Building received a major renovation of floors, painting and heating.

Rooms 105 and 205 Buttrick Hall were partitioned to give additional classroom and office space. The white stone around the front entrance of Buttrick Hall was steam cleaned.

Date parlors in Agnes Scott Hall were redecorated.

New lighting was installed in the post office. Additional mail boxes were purchased to provide one for each student and faculty member.

Furniture was re-upholstered in the library, in addition to extensive repairs, new flooring, plaster, and painting.

Cottages were razed at 220 and 226 South McDonough Street and at 155 South Candler Street.

Additional telephone facilities were provided.

Winship Hall, our new dormitory, was completed during the summer and was ready for occupancy when school opened in the fall. A routine program of repairing and painting a number of other college buildings was completed.

In the course of the current session, the College purchased houses at 202 East Davis Street (which joins the college property on College Place), 363 South Candler Street, and 307 South McDonough Street. These houses will be used as faculty homes.

The following improvements have been authorized by the Board and will be undertaken in the near future:

Raze four cottages (123, 125, 129, 131 College Place) in order to provide additional space for parking.

Make necessary alterations in the dining hall in order to open up the ground floor for service to relieve present crowded conditions.

Install a culvert in the stream bed south of the power plant and fill the entire area with dirt.

Regrade and regrass the athletic field.

Resurface the four tennis courts and construct an additional one.

Provide an area 30' by 30' east of the power plant for a sub-station to enable the Georgia Power Company to increase and improve their facilities to the campus.

Partition Rebekah Scott recreation room to make six additional date parlors.

Lay a new telephone cable from Main to the Dana Building to take care of additional telephones.

Complete landscaping already under way in the alumnae garden.

Routine repairing and painting in college buildings.

The construction of the Charles A. Dana Fine Arts Building is proceeding quite satisfactorily. The building was designed by the architectural firm of Edwards and Portman of Atlanta. The J. A. Jones Construction Company is doing the construction. The building, housing our departments of art and of speech and drama, will provide classroom and seminar facilities, lounges, studios, offices, an outdoor sculpture court, art galleries and exhibit areas, and a little theater with a seating capacity of 324. The theater consultant is James Hull Miller of Shreveport, Louisiana. By action of our Board recently, the art galleries will be named for Mr. Harry L. Dalton of Charlotte, North Carolina, who is making a gift of pictures valued at $50,000 to the College.

Although the Charles A. Dana Fine Arts Building is scheduled to be completed next January, it will probably not be fully activated for teaching purposes until the fall of 1965.

THE TERMS of the following Trustees expired with the annual meeting of the Board on May 8, 1964: Dr. J. Davison Philips (Synodical, Georgia), Mrs. S. E. Thatcher (Synodical, Florida), Dr. Massey Mott Heltzel (Synodical, Alabama), Miss Eleanor N. Hutchens (Alumnae), Mr. G. Scott Candler (Corporate), Mr. L. L. Gellerstedt (Corporate), and Mr. Ben S. Gilmer (Corporate).

By action of the Board at the annual meeting, Mrs. Joseph C. Read was elected as a Corporate Trustee for a term of four years, filling the vacancy created by the death of Mr. C. E. Thwaite, Jr.; Dr. J. Davison Philips was elected to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. S. Hugh Bradley as a Corporate Trustee in the Class of 1965; Dr. J. R. McCain, who has been serving as a Corporate Trustee in the Class of 1966, was elected as a Synodical Trustee for a term of four years, subject to ratification by the Synod of Georgia; Mrs. S. E. Thatcher was re-elected as a Synodical Trustee for a term of four years, subject to ratification by the Synod of Florida; Dr. Massey Mott Heltzel was re-elected as a Synodical Trustee for a term of four years, subject to ratification by the Synod of Alabama; Mr. G. Scott Candler, Mr. L. L. Gellerstedt, and Mr. Ben S. Gilmer were re-elected as Corporate Trustees for terms of four years each; Miss Sarah Frances McDonald, retiring president of the Agnes Scott Alumnae Association, was elected for a term of two years, succeeding Miss Eleanor N. At the meeting on May 8, 1964, the Board of Trustees heard testimonials concerning the life and service of Dr. S. Hugh Bradley and Mr. Charles E. Thwaite, Jr., who died during the past year, and Mr. Charles F. Stone, whose active service has been terminated by illness and infirmity. These men have served the College faithfully, and their presence as members of the Board will be missed.

The Board at the annual meeting re-elected Mr. Hal L. Smith as chairman and the President of the College as secretary. Mr. Alex P. Gaines was elected as vice-chairman, replacing Mr. William C. Wardlaw, Jr., who requested that he not be considered for re-election as an officer of the Board.

In this seventy-fifth anniversary year in Agnes Scott's life, it is appropriate to record the fact that the men and women who have served as Trustees deserve a major share of the credit for the institution's success. I am personally most grateful for the strong support of the present Board in the responsibilities that have been committed to me. I look forward to the future with anticipation of the continued fellowship with those who constitute our Board.

Respectfully submitted,
